CLARKSON WILL NOT QUIT

He Will Probably Worry the Democrats by Remaining in Office Six Months.

Recommendations of the All-American Congress Regarding Sanitary Laws and Patents-General News of the Capital.

CLARKSON HAS NOT RESIGNED. He Will Probably Consent to Remain in Office Until After Next November.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. WASHINGTON, July 11 .- Assistant Postmaster-general Clarkson, who has been taking a two months' tour through the far West and spending some time on the Pacific slope, is expected home the first of the week, to resume his official duties for the time being, at least. Although there has been a great deal of talk about the retirement of Mr. Clarkson, he has never formally offered his resignation. He has several times told Mr. Wanamaker and the President that he was going out, and, in fact, has set several dates, but in response to their remonstrances has consented to remain a little longer. When he started on his Western trip it was given out that Mr. Clarkson would not return to his official duties, but that his resignation would take effect on the 30th of June, the end of the fiscal year. But he has decided to come back again, and may, and likely will, remain in office until after the congressional

MORE PAN-AMERICAN WORK.

Recommendations of the Conference in Regard to Sanitary Regulations and Patents. WASHINGTON, July 11.-The President to-day transmitted to Congress two communications from the Secretary of State, inclosing in one the report of the action of the international American conference concerning the protection of patents, trademarks and copyrights in commerce between the American republics, and in the other the action of the same body for the better protection of public health against contagious diseases. Respecting the lastnamed subject Secretary Blaine, in his let-

The sanitary officers of the gulf cities of the United States have hitherto found great difficulty in protecting the public health against contagious diseases brought by shipping from South America, Central America, Mexico and West Indian ports, without restricting the freedom of commerce. At certain seasons of the year the quarantine regulations, which they have been compelled to adopt, have often placed an absolute embargo upon communication with the tropical countries, where such diseases origi-nate. The same difficulties have been experinate. The same difficulties have been experienced in a like measure by the neighboring nations, and the attention of sanitary specialists, both in Europe and America, has been for years engaged in the task of devising some remedy.

International sanitary conventions were held at Rio de Janeiro in 1887, and at Lima, Peru, in 1889, and were composed of eminent scientists who gave the subject the closest investigation.

At both these conventions regulations were At both these conventions regulations were framed for the protection of shipping and of ports exposed to infection, which agree in all their essential provisions.

Those of the convention of Rio de Janeiro were adopted by Brazil, Paraguay, Uruguay and the Argentine Republic, and are now enforced in the ports of those nations. The recommendations of the Lima conference have not been carried into effect. Colombia, Venezuela and the nations of Central and North America were not represented at either convention, but they are equally interested in securing the results desired; and the international American conference recommends the acceptance and enforcement by them of the regulations of the Rio de Janeiro convention, or those adopted at Lima, as the best systems that have yet been devised.

Upon the subject of international patents and trade-marks, the Secretary, in transmitting the conclusions of the conference,

The South American congress, which met at Montevideo in August, 1888, adopted three treaties for the protection of patents, trademarks and copyrights, which have already been ratified by the Argentine Republic, Bolivia, Brazil, Chili, Colombia, Ecuador, Paraguay, Peru, Uruguay and Venezuela—all the nations of the southern continent-and the recent conference recommends their ratification by the several governments of Central and North America.

STEAMSHIP SUBSIDIES. Democrats Oppose Them and Want the Priv-tlege of Buying British-Built Ships. WASHINGTON, July 11 .- At 2 o'clock the shipping bills were in order as the unfinished business in the Senate to-day. They were taken up, and Mr. Gibson ad dressed the Senate. He argued against the proposed subsidies for ships, but in favor of moderate postal subsidies. He spoke of the importance of establishing a line of steamships to trade with the Congo country; of building a government dry-dock at New Orleans, and of reforming the tariff by admitting commodities from the South American states at lower rates of duties. He appealed to the chairman of the committee on commerce [Mr. Frye] to relax the rigidity of the policy; to allow the ships to be purchased abroad and sailed under the American flag: to take off the tariff duties from materials, supplies and outfits that go into the construction and sailing of ships, and to accept as a compromise the policy of giving postal subsidies to American-built

Mr. Coke said that if he had to frame a bill to place the American merchant marine on an equality with that of other nations he would not commence with asking the people for the payment of subsidies, but he would take hold of the shipping laws of the United States and repeal them. He would allow to American citizens at least the same privileges that foreigners had in American ports, of getting their ships where they could buy them cheapest. He would also modify the tariff laws. Mr. Coke went on to declaim against the injurious effects of an illiberal tariff law and said that if retaliation were resorted to in Europe-as was now threatened-that retaliation would fall upon the farmers of the United States. Mr. Vest offered as a substitute for the bill, as to the American merchant marine, a provision for free ships, to be used only in the foreign carrying trade, not in the coastwise or lake trade. The bills went over without action, after an unsuccessful effort by Mr. Frye to have an agreement to vote upon them to-morrow. After a brief executive session the Senate adjourned.

MINOR MATTERS.

Army Promotions-Rank of Lieutenant-Gen-

WASHINGTON, July 11 .- The President today sent to the Senate the following nomi nations: Colonel Alexander McD. McCook. Sixth Infantry, to be brigadier-general: Major Augustus G. Robinson, quartermaster, to be deputy quartermaster-general, with the rank of lieutenant-colonel; Capt. Edwin B. Atwood, assistant quartermaster, to be quartermaster with the rank of major.

The House committee on military affairs to-day directed a favorable report on a bill to revive the rank of lieutenant-general of the army. The bill permits the President to appoint to that office an officer dis-tinguished for skill and bravery in the late war, and the office is to expire upon his retirement. Favorable reports were also ordered on bills authorizing the Secretary of War to employ twenty acting chaplains in the army, and granting to the Rio Grande Southern railroad right of way across the Fort Lewis, Col., military reservation.

Coldest July Day for Years.

WASHINGTON, July 11.-The signal office furnishes the following special bulletin to the press. This morning's weather report shows that throughout the south Atlantic and Middle States from Georgia northward to Lake Erie and in portions of New England last night was one of the coldest on record for this season of the year. Following are some minimum Vt., 40, 2 below; Washington city and Sandusky, 56, and Boston 54, no difference. The minimum yesterday morning at Albany was 48, 2 below the lowest previous record during the first decade of July.

Good Office for an Indianian.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. WASHINGTON, July 11.-George W. Robertson, of Mt. Vernon, Ind., was to-day appointed superintendent of the redemption division in the office of the Comptroller of the Currency, Treasury Department. This is one of the best divisions in the department. The work is in connection with national banks, and the appointee is thoroughly capable of filling the position with distinguished credit to the State. Mr. Robertson has for many years been in the banking business, and has a training which fits him especially for work in the Comptroller's division. He was a paymaster in the United States army during the late war, and financial secretary for the Republican central committee during the campaign of 1888.

American Consular Convention. WASHINGTON, July 11 .- Secretary Blaine recently wrote to the Secretary of the Treasury, requesting that two experienced special agents of that department be detailed to attend the conference of United States consuls-general now in Europe, to be held at Paris, France, early next month, for the purpose of discussing matters af-fecting the administration of the laws and regulations applicable to the consular service. A. K. Tingle, chief of the special agents' division of the Treasury Department, and M. D. Hiell, a special agent of the department, now in Europe, have been detailed to represent the Treasury Department on the occasion in question.

Another War-Cloud.

WASHINGTON, July 11.—In the Senate, to-day, Mr. Wilson, of Iowa, offered a resolution, which was referred to the committee on foreign relations, calling on the Secretary of State for information on the subject of an American citizen, Thomas T. Collins, being deprived of his rights, liberty and property at Manila, in the Phillipine islands, and as to what action had been taken in regard to the matter by the State Department.

Approved by the President. WASHINGTON, July 11 .- The President to-day approved the legislative, judicial and executive appropriation bills; the act to provide an additional associate justice of the Supreme Court of the Territory of New Mexico and the act to provide for the disposal of certain abandoned military reservations in Wyoming.

Pension Legislation Prevented by a Democrat WASHINGTON, July 11 .- The House met at 8 o'clock, and on the first pension bill that was called up Mr. Enloe of Tennessee made the point of no quorum, and the House adjourned.

The Typewriter Still Pursues Him. CLEVELAND, O., July 11.-Hortense Mapes, a beautiful young stenographer in a railroad office here, has begun a novel suit in the Court of Common Pleas against John F. Harper, a wealthy banker of Chagrin Falls. Miss Mapes was engaged to be married to Harper two years ago. He changed his mind, however, and offered Miss Mapes $2,000 to relieve him of his promise. She consented, and a contract was drawn whereby he agreed to pay her the amount in semi-annual installments of $500 each. He paid three of them, and she now brings suit for the fourth. Miss Mapes is twenty-two.

McKinley to Be Opposed by a Bar'l. ORRVILLE, O., July 11.-The dead-lock in the Democratic congressional convention of the Sixteenth district was broken tonight, after two days and one night of balloting, by the nomination of ex-Lieutenantgovernor John G. Warwick, of Massillon. Mr. Warwick, who will be the opponent of Congressman McKinley, is a business man, engaged for many years in extensive milling interests and owner of coal mines. His first and only political office was Lieutenant-governor of Ohio.

PYTHIANS BREAK CAMP.

Fourth Prize in the Drill Contests Won by New Albany, and Seventh by Indianapolis.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., July 11 .- General Carnahan, commander of the uniformed Knights of Pythias, has given orders to break camp, and it is expected that Camp Carnahan, where twelve thousand Knights have held forth during the week, will be almost deserted to-night. Since early this morning all outgoing trains have been crowded with Pythian Knights homeward bound, after having attended one of the most successful conclaves ever held by the

WHOLESALE WHISKY FRAUDS.

Philadelphia Firms in Trouble for Changing the Dates of Inspection Stamps.

PITTSBURG, July 11.-A few days ago United States Marshal Harrah seized a quantity of whisky shipped by Strouse & Co., of Philadelphia, to their agent at Braddock, near Pittsburg, because the stamp on the barrels indicated that the whisky was two years older than it really was. Internal Revenue Collector Warmcastle, of the Twenty-second district, has new received information implicating two of the most reputable wholesale liquor firms in the country in the same kind of work. The collector declines to give the names of the firms, but the facts in the case are known. They sold whisky purporting to be six years old, the barrels beregularly stamped with the date of inspection, which is the certificate of age accepted by dealers. The purchasers had reason to suspect the stamps were not those originally placed on the barrels, and they sent the numbers of the barrels to the distiller, with the request that he inform them when the barrels were filled and inspected. The reply of the distiller in each case showed that the stamps, which are made with a stencil, had been changed, and that the whisky was only two years old. By changing the stamps the dealers obtained more than double the market price for the quality of the whisky they sold. There is reason to believe that this practice is general all over the country. It is a violation of law, punishable by a fine of $1,000 for every barrel on which the stamp has been changed. Collector Warmcastle promises a rigid investigation and prompt arrests in his district.
